DCU for Kids and Boomer Esiason Hit the Golf Course for a Great Cause
10th Annual Charity Golf Tournament Raises Over $280,000

Marlborough, MA – DCU for Kids, the non-profit charitable foundation of DCU (Digital Federal Credit Union), held its 10th Annual Charity Golf Tournament on Tuesday, June 16, 2009 at the Mt. Pleasant Country Club in Boylston, MA. For the 5th consecutive year, proceeds benefitted the Boomer Esiason Foundation, as well as other local deserving causes and charities benefitting children and families. Through the efforts of DCU for Kids and tournament sponsors - $280,000 was raised of which $200,000 will be donated to the Boomer Esiason Foundation. With this year's donation, DCU for Kids has raised over $1 million dollars for the Foundation. Boomer joined 143 participating golfers for a day on the course, Silent Auction, Buffet Dinner and closing out the afternoon an Awards Ceremony.

Boomer, a veteran NFL quarterback of 14 years with the Cincinnati Bengals, New York Jets, and Arizona Cardinals as well as a nationally recognized television and radio commentator, vowed to eliminate cystic fibrosis after his son, Gunnar, was diagnosed with the disease in 1993 at the age of 2. Now at 18, as Gunnar begins his freshman year at Boston College in August, Boomer and his wife, Cheryl, are even more committed to supporting critical research to discover the cure for cystic fibrosis.
